

Guide to JWS Website

Home Page - Welcome and highlights of upcoming and recent events (meetings, shows, workshops), and links to calendar, latest newsletter, the annual program trifold brochure, our facebook page, and our blog

About Us - Brief history, mission and what we offer to the art community; links to contacts and historical membership

- Calendar - with upcoming events, dates and locations
- Contact Us - Information about the officers and committees, board meetings, and contact information
- History - Lists past presidents and charter members and brief history of JWS

Exhibitions - Description and general information about our shows and links to additional information about the Artist of the Year, schedule of upcoming shows, entry information, show standards, pages for our current and past shows

- Artist of the Year - Current honoree(s), description of the once in a lifetime award, and links to more about the honorees, and past recipients of the award
- Schedule - Lists upcoming shows, juror, key dates, and location
- Entry Information - Entry requirements, fees, commission (if any), entry form, and highlights of important rules for entry in JWS shows
- Standards - full set of show standards for entry in a JWS juried show with criteria for entry from by-laws, description of allowable media, and entry requirements.
- Shows - links to the pages for the most recent show and archives of past show with programs, award winners, and photos of the paintings in the exhibition

Programs - General meeting place and time, schedule of programs from September through May with dates and guest artists and links to the trifold brochure for the current year as a handy reference and to more information about the guest artist for the upcoming program and directions to the meeting place.

- Guest Artist - Information about the featured artist for the upcoming general meeting
- Meeting Location - Directions to the location for the general meeting and a link to the map
- Resources - General educational resources available to members with links to the media library which includes books and DVDs available to members, and to listing of classes and instruction provided by JWS members

Membership - Describes the benefits of membership, opportunities to volunteer and dues with links to membership application form, listing of members, the by-laws, and members gallery

- Application - Membership application form may be printed from screen or downloaded as pdf file and filled out to become a member
- Members - Listing of all current members and lifetime members
- By-Laws - Governing document describing JWS and how it operates, including purpose, membership dues, duties of Board directors, officers, and committees, meetings, elections, and juried show criteria
- Members Gallery - Members who have their own website with links to them and information on how to create your own website

Communications - Describes how JWS communicates with members and has links to newsletters, blog, and facebook page and links of other websites of interest to members

- Newsletters - Describes how to contribute to upcoming newsletter, links to latest newsletter and the archived newsletters
- Website & Blog - Links to Blog and information about the website
- Links - Links to organizations who support JWS, other art organizations and resources of interest to the members

Workshops - General description of workshops and links to schedule of upcoming workshops, featured artist who will be instructor, and registration form

- Schedule - Lists upcoming workshops with instructor, dates of workshop, and location
- Instructor - Information about the featured artist who will be teaching the workshop with links to registration form
- Registration - General registration form for workshop with link to specific flyer and registration form for featured artist