SHOW FLYER, 2017

Every JWS member should have easy access to the rules which govern our shows.

While Show Standards are available on our website, at each show taken, we find that one or two members experience the pain of not being able to submit their masterpiece because it fails to meet Show Standards.

This Show Flyer is an attempt to give you just in time information as you paint.

The plan is to release this information in a flyer before EVERY show!

Make sure your paintings are presented properly: clean mats, unblemished acrylic and unscratched frames with appropriate hanging wire.

FALL SHOW DETAILS

FALL SHOW OPENING SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29 from 1:00-3:00 pm.

Our show will be held at Westminster Woods and will hang during their Fall Festival, which will be attended by thousands of friends and families of the residents.

Take-in will be at Westminster Woods on Saturday, October 14th from 9am-12 noon.

If you cannot make it to take-in, please use one of the following drop-off locations. Complete the Entry Form and include it, with your $15 check for each painting, in an envelope fixed to the back of the painting. Drop off before noon on Friday October 13 to ensure pickup.

Please call before you bring your paintings to the drop-off locations to be sure there is someone to accept them.

WHY DO WE HAVE SHOW STANDARDS, ANYWAY?

Show Standards ensure that our exhibit of paintings presents a uniform appearance, with each original painting framed and matted in the same way and presented in a manner suitable for a professional gallery.

JWS Standards are modeled after the Florida Watercolor Standards, and they can change as FWS Standards change...so check our Standards before a show. Normally, any changes would be to expand the range of acceptable materials (paint/paper/etc.).

WHY DO I HAVE TO COMPLY WITH SHOW STANDARDS?

YOU DON'T, unless you want to put your painting in a show. (Doesn't EVERYONE want to show your work? C'mon, you know you want to...)

NEW!!

You don't have to like white mats without colored liners in black, white, gold or silver metal frames with acrylic. But, just for Show presentation, keep a couple of clean white mats and appropriate metal frames and acrylic cut to fit your favorite painting size .

After the Show, by all means, exercise your rights to jewelcase that painting in a framing style which suits your individual taste and environment.

COMPLETE THE ENTRY FORM BEFORE YOU COME TO DROP-OFF!

Obviously, we use these forms to keep track of the paintings submitted for a show. However, as with all documents you sign, you should pay attention to the small print!

1. This means YOU painted this, all by yourself!
2. And, you did not draw or paint it in a workshop or classroom environment
3. Yes, aqueous means you can use acrylics styled as watercolors, and we do accept some collage if the take-in judges it to be no more than 20% (better read the Standards on this one, there are some caveats).
4. This must be a new painting, not over 2 years old (noted in the Standards). We don't want to have seen it before in a JWS Show, and the exhibiting location won't want it to have been in another of their shows/exhibitions.

Reddi Arts

Procrastinators should have frames on hand for last minute framing!

Many JWS Members order from American Frame (americanframe.com), or Frames by Mail (framesbymail.com), where you can get the white, black, gold or silver metal frame of your choice and size.

Frames at American Frame come with pre-cut mat, picture framing acrylic and mounting board and arrive in a couple of days after ordering.

At Frames by Mail, each component is ordered separately.

Pay careful attention to measuring instructions and illustrations.

Once your frames arrive, the frames from both companies are easy to put together and include a hanger which meets standards.
